City of Stockton Accepting Applications City Council Vacancy – District 2

(Stockton, CA) - The City of Stockton will begin the process of selecting and appointing a Councilmember for Council District 2. Councilmember Kathy Miller will take an oath of office and begin serving as a San Joaquin County Supervisor in January, 2015. The City Council will be responsible for filling the remaining two years of the District 2 Council seat in accordance with Stockton City Charter, Article VI, Section 601(f). The appointed Councilmember will serve the remainder of Councilmember Miller's term through December 2016.

The application filing period opens October 7, 2014, and closes November 6, 2014, at 5:30 pm. The application packet will be available from the Office of the City Clerk, 425 N. El Dorado St., 1st Floor, beginning October 7, 2014. Application packets must be completed and submitted no later than 5:30 p.m. on November 6, 2014. Applicants must be registered to vote and have lived within Council District 2 for 30 days prior to the November 6, 2014, filing deadline. Councilmembers must live within the Council District they represent for the entire term of service.
